

Making PPPs work December 2016

Thursday
December 1, 2016

Venue
New World Campus
Spaarneplein 2
2515 VK The Hague
The Netherlands

info@ppplab.org
www.ppplab.org

On December 1, the PPPLab is organising a practical day of exchange, application and design for those working in public-private partnerships. Topics covered are to help you discover tools and insights to make your partnership more effective, whatever your role is.

The “Making PPPs work” day will strengthen your partnership process and sharpen your ideas for the new calls as well as for other funding purposes and opportunities. The day will consist of sessions covering themes like PPP-specific financing strategies, smart scaling, making your partnering more effective and understanding how to work with in-country public sectors. A range of tools, feedback opportunities and planning concepts will directly be applied to your individual PPP, by offering 1:1 speed dates, small working group sessions and direct free feedback from experts and practitioners.

The day presents:

- Opening session with DGIS & private sector on their drivers for investing in PPPs
- Two rounds of three parallel workshops with a mix of themes and practical knowledge application to your PPP (idea)
- Q&A with RVO on the latest news on Call 3 FDW and FDOV
- Speed dating: quick feedback on your PPP process or design
- PPPs of the future: where will innovations in partnering lead to in the future
- Networking lunch & drink

The day is open to all, whatever you do in or with public-private partnerships

Register by sending an e-mail to info@ppplab.org

Program

Morning

09:00

Registration

09:30 - 10:30

Opening session

with Tanja Gonggrijp (DGIS) & William van Niekerk (Top sector Water)

10:30 - 12:15

Financing strategies

Financing strategies for PPPs – what's new?

Particularly relevant for: Those wanting to become more strategic in their search for funding for PPPs.

Producers as partners

How to include small-scale producers for an effective PPP

Particularly relevant for: Those who see the success of their partnership depending on making producer (organisations) competent and equal partners in their project.

Partnering processes

Making your partnership a smooth ride.

Particularly relevant for: Those who want to reduce transaction costs within their PPP and increase internal efficiency.

LUNCH

RVO Q&A corner

Afternoon

13:15 - 15:15

Smart Scaling & System change

Scaling: from simple models to rich strategies

Particularly relevant for: PPP management struggling to bring their project to scale

Working with in-country partners

Making new ways of working in partnership standard procedure

Particularly relevant for: those working with water PPPs, those seeking practical ways of supporting change in partners with very different incentives.

Working with the Public P

Working effectively with the Public P in your PPP

Particularly relevant for: PPP partners wanting to work more effectively with public partners in the project countries.

15:15 - 16:00

RVO: latest news on Call 3 FDW and FDOV

Coffee and speed dating

Quick feedback on your PPP process or design

16:00 - 16:30

PPPs of the future

An open thought experiment on what innovations in partnering may lead to in the future

Drinks will be served from 16:30